

Highlands Spirit

Overview

Rose Travel offers travel itineraries for travelers seeking authentic experiences in Vietnam central highlands. The tour links the Oceanic and ancient Hoi An to the highlands. It make a chance for a truly excursion away form bustling downtown.

Itinerary

Day 1:

Day 1 : Hoi An - Kon Tum

After breakfast, we head on to Kontum on the historical route 14, part of the former Ho Chi Minh trails. Enjoy the off beaten- track excursion with isolated villages, historical sites along the road. Arrive KonTum, transfer to KonKoTu village for dinner, traditional gong music show among opened fire with the Bahnar tribe. Over night in the village's stilt - house.

KonKoTu – Kon Tum

Enjoy the village breakfast amongst the mountainous morning noise. Today, we experience the trek from Kong Klor suspension bridge to the Bahnar villages and wooden church.

Following lunch, transfer to remote villages for the afternoon trek which offers rare experience about the hill tribe daily life and traditions.

Dinner and over night in Kontum.

Day 3:

Kon Tum – Pleiku – Buon Ma Thuot

Drive southward along the 14 route to Buon Ma Thuot. Stop by volcanic T'Nung lake near Pleiku. Stop by at Pleiku downtown for coffee and refreshments. For many reasons, Gia Lai province with Pleiku city is famed for its rubber, black – pepper and coffee plantations. The plateau is home to hill-tribe groups, mainly named Gia Rai, Ba Na , Xo Dang...

Lunch in Buon Ma Thuot. Transfer to Lak lake for dinner and over night.

Day 4:

Buon Ma Thuot - Nha Trang

Enjoy the morning on the tranquil Lak lake. After breakfast, ride the elephant cross Jun village for scenic lake- side village, farms and fields.

The Lak lake has an area of some 500 hectares. This tranquil lake bounded with mountains has been home to many kinds of wetland birds and lotus. The lake was a favorite temporary stop of Nguyen King, Bao Dai during his hunting trips.

Drive to Nha trang. End tour.