

Hoi An Classic with Walking Tour, Cyclo Ride & Boat Trip

Overview

Hoi An was known as the Vietnam's window on the world. Today, this ancient town ranked its name as the best explored on foot and at your leisure. Most old towns are best seen by walking, Hoi An is no exception.

Itinerary

Day 1:

Classic Walking Combines Pedicab Riding And Boat Trip

AM

08.00 Tour guide pick up you at the hotel. Start walking tour with numerous places of interest: the 400-year old Japanese Covered Bridge, the Phuc Kien Assembly Halls, museum, private family's ancient house. Follow the narrow lanes lined, we walk through houses influenced by Chinese, Japanese, French and European architectures.

12.00 Lunch stop at local restaurant.

PM

13.30 Start riding "Xich Lo" through the opposite site of Hoi An River bank where you can take Hoi An panoramic view.

14.30 We cycle through fields, farms and gardens of the village before boarding the boat trip along Thu Bon river to Cua Dai estuary.

The Thu Bon river starts from the mountains along Truong Son range, and flows through some remote valleys, jungles before goes to Hoi An. Thanks to the reddish silt, the crops and water - coconut grow densely and impressively.

17.00 Arrive the hotel. End services.