

My Lai Massacre - Memorial Day Trip

Overview

Visit the suburban of Quang Ngai province and a vestige of the My Lai massacre, Quang Ngai province. Known as Son My Massacre or Tham Sat My Son, in March 16 , 1968, troops of Charlie Company, 11 Brigade, American Division conducted a mass murder 347–504 unarmed civilians.

When the incident became public knowledge in 1969, it prompted widespread outrage around the world.

During your time here you can see impressive monument, memorial statues, House of Evidence with shocking documentary and photography and also have a chance to explore the nearby local farmers and their farms.

The tour starts and ends in Hoi An.

Itinerary

Day 1:

Hoian

07.00 Guide and jeep pick up guests at the hotel. Heading southern Hoi An along highway 1 for Quang Ngai. Stop for coffee break en route.

09.30 Arrive My Son massacre. Welcome by village Guide before starting walking tour through House of Evidence, village massacre vestige.

12.00 Lunch at local restaurant overlooking airy Tra Khuc river.

13.30 Drive back to Hoi An. Pause for sightseeing en route before arriving hotel.

17.200 End services.